Dear Director Berlin,

Please be advised that Alderman Tunney and I accepted tickets to the Chicago Cubs game on Opening Day, April 8, 2013. We attended the game along with the Mayor as a guest of the Cubs and Tom Ricketts. Our attendance was a gesture of good will, and in connection with our ongoing redevelopment discussions with the team. It is my understanding that we can accept these tickets as a reasonable hosting expense offered by the Cubs, who are of course the sponsor of the event.

Please let me know if the Board of Ethics requires any additional information.

Sincerely,

Bennett R. Lawson
Chief of Staff to
Alderman Tom Tunney
